Dear,

Enclosed are a few brochures for lodging near the hunt.

The Common man Inn is located just off exit 26, Interstate 93, in Plymouth and has a restaurant and lounge. All rooms have a fireplace and jacuzzi. Rates range from $90 to $180.

The Best Western speaks for itself with a bar, restaurant and pool; of course it's cost is higher. Nearby is the Covered Bridge Restaurant, more expensive, but excellent food.

Deep River Motor Inn has reasonable rates and is close to Main Street in Plymouth.

The Whip-O-Will Motel and Cottages are clean, but basic. They are located on the shores of Newfound Lake and are near several good restaurants.

Or you are welcome to stay with your guide at Black Bear Lodge. Your cost is $60 per night and includes a private room with twin beds and a roaring campfire at night.

Look these over, I suggest you make your reservation as soon as possible to guarantee your room. I also suggest arriving the night before your hunt if you're travelling a long distance.

IMPORTANT: Purchase your hunting license and bear tag prior to season opening at the New Hampshire Fish and Game or a local licensing agent.

Your Guide,
William F. Barrett
